

Social Capital

By
Vivekananda Kendra - Nardep

Swachhtha Hi Seva

On 15th September 2018, Swachhtha Hi Seva Campaign commenced

International Coastal Cleanup Day was inaugurated by Ms.N.Kamini, Deputy Inspector General of Police (Ramanathapuram Range). Shri.Vasudeo, Secretary, Vivekananda Kendra also shared the Dias during the event. Shri.M.Venkatesan, Station Commander, Mandapam Station of Indian Coastal Guard said the objective of observing the day every year was not only to clean up the beaches but also to create awareness and sensitize the people on the need to keep the coastline pollution-free. School students, ICG Team and Green Rameswaram volunteers took part in the Cleaning drive. Around 150 volunteers cleaned the beach.

Ms.N.Kamini, DIG, Police was the Chief guest

Volunteers ready for the cleaning campaign

Stacks of waste collected during the drive

Amirta Vidyalaya School Cleaning Drive

School students of Amirta Vidyalaya conducted a cleaning drive on September 15, 2018. Green Rameswaram team took part in the event. School Students gathered around the school and marched to the Ekanta Ramar Temple in Thangatchimadam and cleaned the entire temple.

Students and staff members engaged in cleaning

