This classical work on Sri Ramantha Swami of Rameswaram was composed by “Palapattadai Chokkanatha Pillai”. This work was discovered by Dr.U.Ve.Saminatha Iyer after comparing multiple versions. He also wrote a commentary on this rare text.

With the blessings of Lord Ramanatha Swami, Mother Parvathavardhini & Lord Rama, here is an attempt to provide a reasonable translation of this work, in English. Any error can be ascribed to me.

Saraswathi- Gayathri Theertham:

A bath in this Teertham gives the combined effect of worshipping Lord Vishnu & Lord Brahma.

Jack fruit trees grew abundantly in Rameswaram. The entire holy place is considered a Jack fruit and worshipped by our ancestors. The fruits are very tasty as if they have been dipped in honey. But the “Sivakozhundu - Lord Siva in the flame form” is much sweeter and the jackfruit taste becomes bitter. Goddess Ambika, whose eyes look like a sword, fish, and spear, resides in a coral-abode. With the presence of the Devi, the island resembles the coral-abode of the Devi. This place that has been well structured with the gardens, Devendra's place and forests is the handiwork of Lord Ramanatha Swamy, who resides there.
