1. Pada pooja:

Pada pooja ceremony was organised at Anandalaya to inspire students to express gratitude, respect, and devotion toward their parents, who are regarded as their first teachers and guides. Students from various Anandalayas participated with enthusiasm, accompanied by their parents and teachers.

The programme began with a short prayer and the chanting of mantras, creating a serene and spiritual atmosphere. The students then performed Pāda Pūjā by gently washing their parents' feet, applying turmeric and kumkum, offering flowers, and receiving their blessings with folded hands.

Teachers spoke about the cultural and spiritual significance of Pāda Pūjā and encouraged students to honour, respect, and care for their parents throughout their lives. In the concluding moments, many parents expressed their joy and emotion, blessing the children wholeheartedly.

The ceremony beautifully strengthened the bond between students and their parents and helped instill the values of gratitude, humility, and Indian cultural traditions - fostering positive attitudes and behaviour among the children.
