2. Teertha Mitra Meeting:

The review process included individual feedback discussions with participants, followed by a reflection meeting on 5th July 2026 to assess the outcomes and key learnings from the Sarva Teertha Pooja held in June. During the meeting, a 21-member working committee was constituted, with office-bearers and members entrusted with administrative coordination, outreach, site identification, and teertham restoration activities. As its first initiative, the committee resolved to undertake the restoration of Pasukanna Teertham at Mangadu, marking the beginning of its conservation efforts.

3. Anandalaya Teachers Meeting:

The Monthly Anandalaya Teachers' Meeting was held on 8th July 2026 with the participation of 13 teachers. The meeting began with a prayer, followed by the presentation of monthly activity reports highlighting students' progress in academics, discipline, confidence, and extracurricular participation. Discussions focused on integrating Green Health into the Anandalaya programme, strengthening Pasumai Kutumbam activities, and conducting regular Yoga classes for children and community members. The meeting also provided a platform to share best practices, address challenges, and plan future activities. The coordinator appreciated the teachers' dedicated efforts towards the holistic development of children and the community.

5. School Competitions:

During this month, 8 school-level competitions were organized for students, featuring events such as speech, drawing, Thirukkural recitation, storytelling, and essay writing. The competitions witnessed enthusiastic participation from students, providing them with an opportunity to demonstrate their knowledge, creativity, and communication skills. These activities contributed to enhancing their self-confidence, discipline, critical thinking, and overall personality development while fostering a healthy spirit of learning and participation. Winners were recognized with prizes, and all participants were appreciated for their active involvement and commendable efforts.
